Note to U.S. Residents

This notice of the resolution of the shareholders' meeting is an English-language translation of the original Japanese-language version. To the extent that there are discrepancies between this translation and the original version, the original version shall be definitive.

The stock-for-stock exchange transaction involves the issuance of the securities of a Japanese company in exchange for securities of Japanese companies. The transaction is subject to the disclosure requirements of Japanese law that are different from those of the United States. Financial information included herein or in any disclosure document relating to the transaction is based on financial statements prepared in accordance with Japanese accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for U.S. investors to enforce their rights and any claim they may have with respect to the stock-for-stock exchange transaction that arise under the U.S. federal securities laws, since the issuer is located in a foreign country and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. U.S. investors may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.
